Guests: Dustin Yadon by Don Nimmo and Albert Goettle's grandson visited us today.

Attendance: We had $39 dollars today and Chapin Miller's name was drawn. he donated it back to the club, so it will carryover to next week.

50/50: None today!

The number one gift, like always, was:

The number two gift was a gift that could give back in many ways and has the sweet and recognizable tune from Rodney Carrington! Allen was the fortunate soul that ended up with this wonderful Christmas Present! Please do not share any pictures, as we are all Professional men!!! Remember, what happens on the hill, stays on the hill! (No picture is needed for this one but this was the closest thing I could find):

The number 3 gift was an elegant gift from a local potpourri store. It was a soap ring with floral escents that one could relax in a bath with. Nimmo's guest was the winner of this gift and his name was Dustin! Enjoy!

The #4 gift was a gift that one could classify as "adventourous", "dangerous", and possibly "life threatening" as an injury is more than likely to occur when in use, yet, our dear friend Mr. Charlie McGregor won this gift, and will sadly never be able to use it to its full potential, because Charlie is 90 years old and that ship has sailed...

MERRY CHRISTMAS
YOU FILTHY ANIMALS!

White Elephant Christmas Exchange was today!

A Great time was had by all. If you missed it, you missed a good one. No one will be thirsty as there were plenty of gifts that you could wet your whistle with!
