Presiding: Prez Doug Fouse
Prayer: Mike Bishop
Pledge: Brett Myers

Members: ? I don't know. I forgot to get the attendance sheet. My bad guys.

Guests: - None. Substandard guys. Absolutely Substandard. As Danny put it: "Do any of you have any friends that are outside of this club?" "If so, invite them to our next meeting."

Attendance: Mark Whinnery was absent and lost his chance to pull the White Marble for approximately $77. This amount will carryover for next week.

50/50: - $49 to Rick. I only see him once a year so I can't remember his last name. He at least donated the winnings back to the club. He probably felt guilty about all his unexcused absences!

UPCOMING PROGRAMS

I have no idea and I'm starting to think our Program Director Mr. Harry Barth doesn't know either as today's program was a complete NO SHOW..... Harry had plenty of excuses on what could be the cause of the NO SHOW, but in the end, Warner did the right thing & imposed a fine. Which Harry paid in pennies!

Since there were no speakers or programs today, we'll go straight to announcements.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

-Forrest Williams was
AMBUC of the Day:

As you can see from his dress attire, he could work at Rader Funeral Home 7 days a week. He actually is the best dressed AMBUC. He is 27 years of age. Raised in Nacogdoches. Graduated from SFA. Was a CPA but decided to take the High Road and become a Financial Advisor with Edward Jones. His office is located just off of Bill Owens by the Golf Course. He has a brother and a sister. He is now an uncle and has never been married and no kids. He likes to travel. He just returned from Ireland where he attempted to play golf but shot a 110 and drank plenty of Guinness and Jameison Whiskey! He is a High School Baseball Umpire. He has always been into mission and service work. If you would like to know anything else about Forrest,

ASK HIM YOURSELF...

A few jokes

It's All about presentation!

-This is the true story of George Phillips of Meridian, Mississippi, who was going to bed when his wife told him that he'd left the light on in the shed. George opened the door to go turn off the light but saw there were people in the shed in the process of stealing things.

He immediately phoned the police, who asked "Is someone in your house?" and George said no and explained the situation. Then they explained that all patrols were busy, and that he should simply lock his door and an officer would be there when available.

George said, "Okay," hung up, counted to 30, and phoned the police again.

"Hello, I just called you a few seconds ago because there were people in my shed. Well, you don't have to worry about them now because I've just shot them all."

Then he hung up. Within five minutes three squad cars, an Armed Response unit, and an ambulance showed up. Of course, the police caught the burglars red-handed.

One of the policemen said to George: "I thought you said that you'd shot them!"

George said, "I thought you said there was nobody available!"

A man walks into a lawyer's office and asks how much he charges, the answer was quite a surprise!
